Mittwoch, 7. April 2021

9.00 – ca. 17.00 Uhr

WKO – Saal 5

Wiedner Hauptstraße 63, 1040 Wien

Target Group

Export- and import managers, sales personnel and lawyers involved in contract negotiations. Participants should have a strong foundation in basic English. Legal expertise is not required but experience with export or import contracts is assumed.

Objective

Optimizing import and export contracts in English

This seminar aims at enhancing your general knowledge of contracts and will explain how to draft and structure import and export contracts in English. Standard clauses and phrases will be highlighted to help you formulate your international contracts properly. Being proficient in using legal terminology will better prepare you in using English as the language of negotiation professionally. Selective case examples will give you the possibility to test and apply your knowledge.

Content

General Principles of Contracts

- Basic differences of legal systems and laws
- Rules of interpretation for contracts
- Differences between Anglo-American style and civil law contracts

English as the Legal Language of Contracts

- Translation difficulties and other language issues
- Legal English terminology

Key Issues and Clauses

- When is there a "meeting of the minds" resulting in a binding contract?
- Title retention issues
- How to deal properly with damages clauses
- Limitation of liability
- The dangers of liquidated damages
- Material adverse change
- Force majeure
- Termination clauses
- Deadlines and time limits
